FASFAA President's Message

Dear FASFAA Members and Colleagues,

Welcome to our new Business Partner Service Directory! This directory is designed to provide you, our members with an invaluable resource highlighting the many services our business partners have to offer. Inside you will find staffing outsourcing, default management, financial literacy, private loans, scholarships, verification outsourcing, call center support and so much more!

When you receive that call or email from a business partner, please take a moment and have a word with them. You may discover an opportunity to improve your service to students and deliver financial aid in a way you would have never considered before with their help.

Our business partners are just that, PARTNERS! With representation on the FASFAA board and serving as trainers and facilitators at our many training events yearly, FASFAA is proud to provide this directory as a continued way to expand our partnership with these great companies!

Sincerely,

Nadine Bailey

FASFAA President, 2022-23

FASFAA Business Partners

Our FASFAA Business Partners are active members who support the purpose of our association. They not only participate and provide support in our training efforts but also are valuable resources to our FASFAA members.

FASFAA membership benefits include training, networking, mentoring and resources to assist financial aid professionals, high school guidance counselors and career counselors. Our Business Partners play a vital role in supporting these goals by volunteering to serve on committees, agreeing to support our training efforts by presenting, moderating, or providing financial support.

Business Partners bring value beyond sponsorship dollars. Their commitment to FASFAA includes:

- to educate the members of the resources, services, and solutions they have to offer to:
 - support their institution with services available to assist in managing the delivery of aid and contributing to the positive student experience. Some examples include lending, financial literacy, technology, compliance, interim staffing, and outsourcing solutions.

AND

- support their institution with the professional development of their staff with training opportunities and resources.
- Make a positive impact on behalf of their organizations by building relationships and expanding their networks.
- To be active members and volunteers that contribute to the success of the association, such as serving as volunteers to:
 - serve on the Executive Board in the leadership roles of Committee or Task Force Chairs to represent the membership and the business of the association.
 - serve on Committees or Task Force as members to represent the membership and support the mission and business of the association.
 - support training events of the association as presenters or moderators at conferences, workshops, and on webinars.
 - support advocacy, outreach or other events that align to the mission of the association.

Our partners all provide resources, services and solutions that can assist our members' institutions in their staff's professional development and in supporting the delivery of aid that contributes to student success. We encourage you to take the time to review their profiles and visit their website. If you have any interest in any of their products, services, solutions or just want to get to know them better please reach out to their representative.

Organization Description

Established in 2015, Ascent is built around one grounding principle: Student loans should expand possibilities, not limit them. That is why Ascent created a new private student loan program that gives students more opportunities to qualify for a loan, with or without a cosigner. To encourage transparency and financial wellness for student borrowers, Ascent incorporates financial literacy/ education into the application process as a requirement for student borrowers to complete and submit their application. We have a variety of financial wellness resources dedicated to students, to include over $72,000 in annual scholarship giveaways , at AscentFunding.com/Financial-Wellness and resources to empower students to make better financial decisions today and in the future at AscentFunding.com/Resources. Students can also visit our growing YouTube channel for videos on financial tips and best practices throughout college and beyond.

Educational Credit Management Corporation (ECMC)- Guarantor (nonprofit)

ECMC is a national guaranty agency, managing a $31 billion student loan portfolio. ECMC was founded in 1994 under its original charter with the United State Department of Education to serve as a safety net if another guarantor ceased to operate in its designated territory. Since then, ECMC has been designated as the guarantor for Virginia, Oregon, and Connecticut. ECMC has also been designated to be the successor guarantor for the FFEL Program portfolios for :

- The California Student Aid Commission (CSAC)
- The Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation (TSAC)
- The Southern Carolina State Education Assistance Authority (SCSEAA)
- The Rhode Island Division of Higher Education Assistance (RIDHEA)
- The Finance Authority of Maine (FAME)

ECMC sponsors programs to help students and families plan and pay for college. Visit <http://www.ecmc.org/>.

Through Solutions at ECMC (nonprofit), we offer postsecondary institutions a suite of student loan repayment services that includes one-on-one repayment advising, financial literacy, and default prevention services.
